Polled Shorthorns have been the major enterprise of the Leemon family since 1901. They have been good to us. The work of my late father and uncle has left to the second and now the third generation a heritage of which we are all proud.

We believe the herd today is in as strong a position as it has ever been. For some time we have been considering a Leemon sale to commemorate the years of effort behind these cattle. This seemed an unusually good time because the cow herd has grown larger than we can handle and our crops of calves by L F Fashion and Oakwood Essential have been the kind that makes it easy to select good ones for a sale offering.

What we have done is to pick about twenty of the best yearlings and two year olds, and to this added twenty-nine good producing cows . . . 20 with calves at foot. We are keeping something out of each of these families . . . mothers . . . daughters . . . full sisters . . . and nearly all of these cows have produced several calves for us. We know, therefore, they can do the job and are of the proper bloodlines. In the largest number of cases we are selling the mother and keeping daughters.

Don't come expecting to see them "hog fat". They will be in decent flesh condition, but, remember, this is a practical working herd kept in prolific breeding condition. Every cow on the place raises a calf every twelve months or she goes to the butcher.

We look forward to having you with us.

61 years - - - helping build a great breed

No one can deny the contributions made by purebred breeders who rise quickly, then for one reason or another leave the scene. However, all breeds of registered livestock have made their greatest improvement through the efforts of those who have stayed with it for decades.

Time is an essential ingredient because it is only through generations of culling and the perpetuation of certain families that breed improvement becomes "locked-in".

The route most progressive breeders take . . . new and old breeders . . . is to capitalize on the long time efforts of others by purchasing families of this kind.

At the turn of the century Charles and John Leemon, brothers, were among the most respected young farmers in the fertile region of east central Illinois. Their selection of Polled Shorthorns marked an important milestone for the breed. Even before the first World War, Leemon productions began appearing and winning at the leading shows. By 1917 they not only dominated the show rings but became among the most successful merchandisers the breed has ever known, often holding two auction sales a year. Their 1918 event established price records which stood for many years.

Lee Dale Collynie x, 1938 International Grand Champion Bull. Used with great success in the Leemon herd.

Oakwood Magic King x. This son of the International grand champion Oakwood Merry King was a breed building sire for the Leemons.

Such highlights which existed throughout the active lives of these two fine gentlemen are only the barest part of the story. The most important phase was the fine herd which they developed through year-in, year-out rigid culling and the use of the very best sires. For the past fifteen years this herd has made further progress under the successful management of Chuck Leemon, who has been active since boyhood in Polled Shorthorns.

Heather Baronet 2nd x. Grand Champion, 1949 Illinois State Fair and first prize winner at the 1949 and 1950 International Livestock Shows. A Polled grandson of the famous Scottish breed improver, Kirkton Baronet.

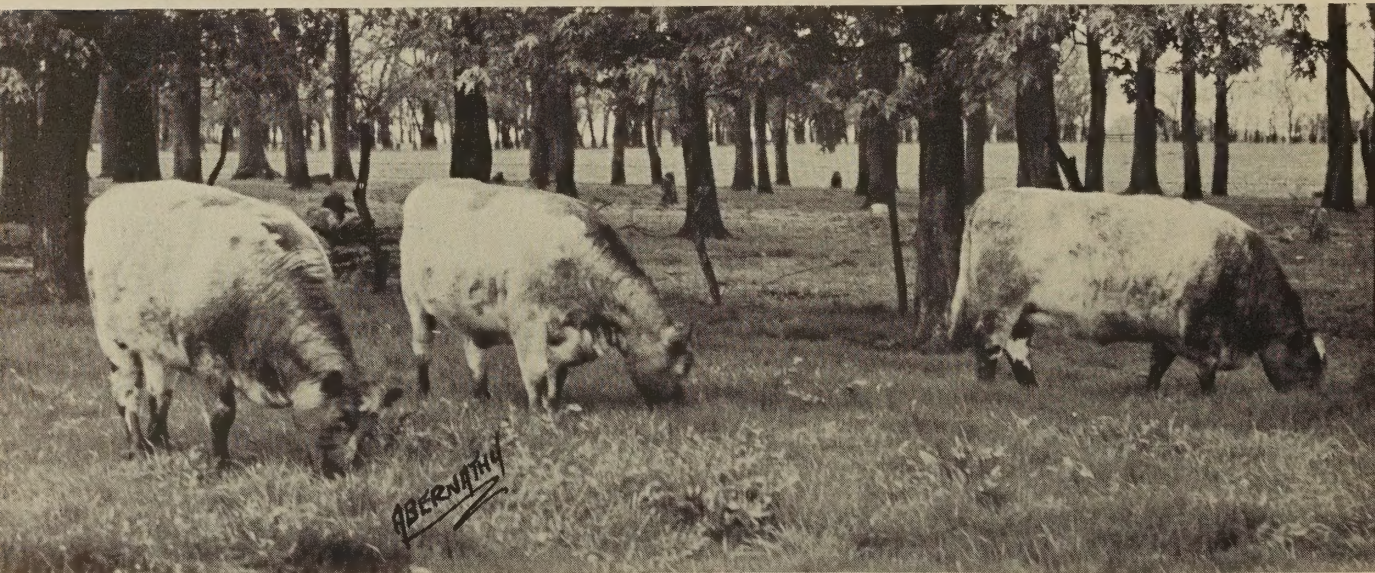

Ceremonious Juggler 3d x. Bred in the Leemon herd and by the same sire as the $20,000 International grand champion T P S Max Coronet 5th x, Ceremonious Juggler 3rd was an outstanding show bull and sire in the late 1950s.

The present generation of Leemons made it quite clear to me that in the promotional material for this sale they did not want to trade upon the past, but they did wish to show respect and acknowledge the fine work by their predecessors.

The herd is in an extremely strong position at this time. Since it has grown somewhat past the capacity which is desired . . . and since there are so many good young cattle from which to select . . . Chuck Leemon felt that this was the ideal time to hold a sale commemorating the heritage of the herd.

This scene taken in 1942 shows typical daughters of the 1938 International Grand Champion, Lee Dale Collynie x. Many were retained in the herd.

First prize aged herd, 1917 International for Leemon Stock Farm. Every one of these were first in class. Extreme left is Scotch Loch Dale, 1917 International Grand Champion. He sold for $5,100 in the 1918 Leemon record breaking sale. This was the highest price for a Polled Shorthorn until modern times. The third animal is Princess Sultana, 1917 International Grand Champion Female and the fourth is Lily Brant, 1917 International Junior Champion.

Selling the cows . . . keeping the daughters.

Charles E. Leemon, third generation of the firm, shown in 1959 receiving trophy for his heifer, Ceremonious Jealousy 21st, Grand Champion Female, Illinois and Indiana State Fairs, and record price Polled Shorthorn female of that year.

I was very pleased when I saw the cattle going into this sale. Chuck had obviously picked his best brood cows to enter in this sale. I told him I thought this was unusual and his reply was that these cows with calves would help make a strong sale of it and he would still be in good shape by carrying on with their daughters by L F Fashion and Oakwood Essential. I believe breeders everywhere can profit by purchasing these time-proved valued families.

OF AMERICAN SHORTHORN BREEDING ASSOCIATION

1. Proper care must be given by purchaser to protect breeding qualities and health of guaranteed animals.

2. All bulls are guaranteed breeders, provided they are not allowed to serve when under 14 months of age, or allowed to run with the herd when under 20 months of age. In case of failure of a bull to be a breeder, notice shall be given to the seller within six months of date of purchase, or by the time the bull is 20 months of age, if purchased under 14 months of age.

3. With the exception of heifers sold under 14 months of age, all females are guaranteed breeders. Heifers under two years of age shall not be served by a heavy or old bull. Cows or heifers sold as bred, or safe in calf, not proving to be in calf must be reported to the seller within three months after date of sale. Females over 14 months of age sold open, not settling within six months after date of sale, shall be promptly reported to the seller.

4. When an animal fails to comply with the above guarantee the seller has the option of substituting an animal of equal value to the satisfaction of the purchaser, or of having the animal returned for a trial for a period not to exceed six months. The expense of freight in such case is to be paid by the seller. If the animal is then proved to be a breeder beyond doubt it shall be returned to the purchaser at his expense. In case of dispute the return of the full purchase price, without interest, to the buyer, will be considered full settlement and satisfaction to all claims. No charge for feed or maintenance shall be made by either buyer or seller. Salvage shall go to the seller. It shall be understood that the same guarantee given for the first animal shall likewise apply to any animal later substituted.

5. All animals catalogued have been tested for T.B. and are clean, and have also passed a test for Brucellosis thirty days prior to the sale, or are accompanied by a Bang's Vaccination Certificate. Announcements will be made covering animals not clear from vaccination.

6. Certificates of registry and transfer will be furnished with each animal sold. A signed pedigree application for unborn calves should be furnished with bred females, showing names and record numbers of sire and dam, as well as service date.

7. Shipment will be made as soon as possible after the close of the sale, but at purchaser's risk of loss or injury after animal is bid off. Where cattle are sold at private treaty the above terms should apply as well as for sale at auction.

All prospective buyers should check health requirements of their states.

As a safeguard to prospective buyers, every animal has successfully passed a clean abortion blood test within 30 days prior to the sale, or will have Certificates of Bang's Calfhood Vaccination, and those that are not from Accredited herds have passed a clean Tuberculin test within the same period. Health certificates will be provided with each lot sold.

OAKWOOD ESSENTIAL x was our pick of the excellent group of sons of Creekland Lancer offered at Oakwood in 1959. To us, because of his character, style, bone, thickness and natural fleshing he was just what we were looking for to follow on the daughters of the International champion, L F Fashion x. A son and a group of his first daughters are offered, as well as a number of top calves at foot. He comes from a great family of females at Oakwood. His granddam topped the 1941 Oakwood sale at $2,000 and produced an International Grand Champion bull. Our 1962 show herd will be strong with the first sons and daughters of Oakwood Essential x.
